Multi-Family Townhouse · Park Slope

This wonderful brownstone, owned by the same family for 64 years, sits on a beautiful tree-lined block in South Slope. The facade is impeccable, clean and clean-lined. A magnificent set of pocket doors separate the entrance from the front parlor and another divine set divide the front and rear parlors. The two original coal-burning fireplaces retain their elegance and one has been converted for gas use. Through the ample butler's pantry with built in cupboard and original mop sink you emerge into the large, eat-in country kitchen with its juxtaposed modern stainless steel appliances and original long country sink. Another pantry and full bath complete this floor. Outside is a breathtaking extension of the living space with a professionally designed garden. Down another stairway is a full height basement, with a sauna and plenty of space to recreate. Back up to the third floor, you'll find what was originally his and hers bedrooms separated by pocket doors. The master bedroom and attached sitting room are adorned with ornate fireplace mantels. The top floor is ready for your personal touches, having been nearly unused for decades. The two large bedrooms, each with original sinks, one smaller bedroom/office, a hallway walk-in closet and another smaller room eager to become a new full bathroom make up this floor. With a small investment in upgrades and modern conveniences, this old world house could be your family's perfect home.
