As you approach this wide and well maintained street, you get the essence of a quiet Brooklyn block. The home offers a quaint and hospitable porch teeming with flora and fauna. Upon entering the house you are greeted with recently attended hardwood floors. Stroll through the spacious living and dining room area. Enter the kitchen where components have been updated, glide into the sun room where the W/D is neatly placed and exit into the backyard which is both tranquil and open just perfect for late afternoon grilling. The properties three bedrooms are ample; coupled with two and a half baths all nicely situated. The spacious finished basement gives you a comfortable yet suburban feel. Built in 1910, this property has charm and grace yet you have modern conveniences. Air conditioning units are built-in so that you stay cool in the summer. The home is convenient to transit since you are two blocks from the Q/B/S or the 2/5. Additionally you are two blocks from Prospect Park and the Botanic Gardens. The neighborhood is vibrant and offers niche "goods and services" with two new additions being a gourmet grocery store and a coffee shop with fresh baked delectables. Other small businesses make Brooklyn the place to be...
