'The Columns,' a captivating Chappaqua estate on 12 acres lush with oak, Cherry Blossom, and Japanese maple trees is atop a hill, overlooking the exclusive Tercia Lake. Including the Greek Revival Manor house, lakeside guest cottage and outdoor pool with a waterfall, a 2-bedroom caretaker's cottage, and a carriage house (currently converted into office space). The Manor house is approximately 7200 square feet and features many exquisite details, including marble fireplaces, ornamental crown moldings, 14 ft ceilings, hardwood herringbone floors, a grand walnut staircase, a mahogany library, and custom mahogany kitchen cabinetry. A rare opportunity to own a Greek Revival-style, colonial home with Byram Hill Schools. This serene oasis is conveniently located within a 45 minute car and train ride to New York City.
