

34 Linden Street

Townhouse · Bushwick

You will be patting yourself on the back for decades to come for having had the foresight to purchase this beautiful brownstone in Brooklyn's most recent darling, Bushwick. With a myriad of authentic brownstone period details in the interior, and an extremely nice back yard (just perfect for that green thumb that needs exercising!), this home is sure to please. Currently used as a one-family, this gorgeous home will most likely require a quick buying decision - many of our clients have spent the last few months asking for a deal similar to this one! Call today or RSVP for the upcoming Open House as soon as you can, as it may be your only opportunity to view this building before it sells.
