Charming townhouse on a lovely Park Slope block! This beautiful 3-family home features both a front and a large rear garden, perfect for entertaining with great north/south light. There are many original details including original wide-plank hardwood floors, marble fireplace and French doors. There is also a large, full basement with plenty of storage space. Many updates including a new gas boiler 3 years ago and updated roof. Property can be delivered vacant if purchaser desires. Excellent rent roll potential either as an investment or primary residence + income! Showing by appointment only.
