Multi-Family Townhouse : Crown Heights

Landmarked Limestone Townhouse Located in the Crown Heights North historic district, this charming, landmarked four story limestone townhouse has been lovingly maintained over the years. The 4,000 sq ft home is a legal 3 family arranged as a 2 family. On the garden level, there is a living/bedroom, kitchen and full bathroom with a laundry room and access to the backyard. Above lies a triplex featuring a parlor, 5 bedrooms, a family room, 3 full bathrooms on each floor and a kitchen. Heavy hard woods are intermixed with period details including original parquet floors, pier mirrors, crown moldings, bay windows and decorative fireplaces. Additionally, the home features both a front and rear yard, accessible from the adjacent west facing corridor. History: This group of Romanesque Revival style row houses was designed by architect Albert E. White and built c.1893 for builder John A. Bliss at a time when improvements in transportation hastened the ... [more]
