Rare West Village Gem! Historical renovated single family townhouse on prime West Village block. Currently configured as three bedrooms with two and a half baths. Built in 1843, 113 Bedford Street is located between Grove and Christopher Streets in the heart of the West Village Historic District. This magnificent 4-story Greek revival townhouse has recently been renovated and features a finished basement, a west facing rear garden, a peaceful solarium, wood burning fireplaces on each floor and beautiful oak wide-plank wood floors. Renovations include an eat-in chef's kitchen with handcrafted fixtures and state-of-the-art appliances; new electric, plumbing and HVAC; a water purification system; intercom and sophisticated alarm systems.
