If you desire a living space that is simple, elegant and timeless, then look no further. This 4 story 2 Family Brownstone is the perfect fusion of a beautifully designed space with a modern and intuitive edge. The owner created a utopic home with a desire for simpler, fuss-free living in response to the fast paced urban lifestyle. As you peruse throughout the four story pre-war brownstone, you will note the conscious design choices that were made on each level. An airy open floor plan is the prevailing theme in each duplex. Ample closets occupy each unit along with generously sized bedrooms. Though there are few original details, the home boasts sleek lighting, exposed white brick, and rich herringbone flooring in addition to select unique finishes. There are 6 fireplaces that can easily be restored to a functional heating source. The tone is serene yet expansive; and accentuating this lovely turnkey home is the zen-inspired outdoor space. Just minutes away, there are parks in all directions and assorted eateries to include Saraghina, Celestino, Peaches, Therapy Wine Bar to name just a few.

To experience the wonderful aesthetic of this refreshing home and all of the endless possibilities, you may schedule a viewing.
