This is a rare and magnificent offering: a 4000 square foot five-bedroom, 2.5 bathroom single family townhouse on a gorgeous prime Central Park Slope block, between 7th and 8th Avenues, in absolutely mint condition. This home features a magical restoration with a classic and minimal eat-in country kitchen adjoining a back foyer, powder room, and lush private back yard. The garden floor also features a home office and sitting room. The parlour floor has a grand living room, dining room, and library with working gas fireplace. The upper floors feature beautifully appointed bedrooms with excellent light, closets, and original detail, along with newly renovated baths and plenty of space for an additional home office and guest room. There is central air and a security system. Available for rent July 1st. Dogs are on approval and must have excellent references. Call or email for a private showing today.
