The Grand Hotel Miramare is located in the heart of the splendid town of Taormina (Sicily). A short walk from the Greek Theatre, the Grand Hotel Miramare combines the fascination of the old patrician villa of the Lo Turco family with the breath-taking view over the Messina Straits and Isolabella Bay.

The building, originally constructed in 1922 by the noble Taormina family, was converted to a hotel as early as 1926. Over the years, various restoration projects have maintained the fascination of the mansion while enhancing it with all the modern comforts.
