With Prospect Park and the charming shops of 7th Avenue a block away, this perfectly positioned brownstone graciously sits in the heart of North Park Slope. An impressive five-story building standing 20 feet wide by 48 feet deep, this three family home is given by its versatility and high-income leases with private outdoor spaces in each unit. The house is currently organized as an owner's garden-parlor duplex followed by a second floor simplex with private terrace and a 3rd floor duplex with private roof deck. This is a must-see opportunity for those interested in shaping a living space to their liking while earning meaningful income from the fully renovated rental apartments. Lease information provided at Open House. Showing during open houses only.
