Single Family Townhouse :: Other Bronx

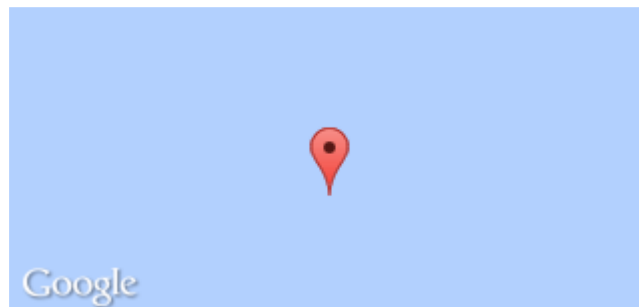

778 West 231st Street Hudson River Arts & Crafts Colonial Serenely perched at the crest of Palisade Avenue and west 231st street, this home never misses a sunset over the picturesque Hudson River. Master craftsmen of the 1930's used rich the materials of stone, slate, brick, lead casement windows, and oak hard-wood in constructing this stately residence which occupies a spacious yet private corner lot. The Hudson River views as you approach the front door will take your breath away. The central hall colonial is well laid out, bright, and spacious. There is a voluminous sunken living room with gorgeous wood work, a wood burning fire place, NW&S exposures, and glass French doors leading to a western facing brick terrace facing the River. The dining room also has great exposures, period details, and is easily accessible from the kitchen. The eat-in-kitchen is also accessible from a covered patio that is level and at grade with Palisade Ave. There is also a bedroom and full bath complete the main floor. The unique period qualities of this home are also present on the second floor where there are three additional well apportioned bedrooms and two full baths. The master bedroom has a beautiful cathedral ceiling and glorious Hudson River views. The attic is well kept and a great storage space. The lower level is finished and includes a two car tandem garage. There is a full bath, finished family room with decorative fire place, laundry / utility room that has above grade windows.
