Beautiful Limestone on Park Block! This classic 3 story, 2 family limestone townhouse filled with authentic period detail including pocket doors, parquet flooring, and pier mirrors is awaiting your vision! The house presents a beautiful bay-front limestone facade with an L-shaped brownstone stoop. This home has been lived in by the same family for many years. It will be delivered vacant and can be converted to a grand single family home, or maintained as a 2 family with rental income. This special property is located on one of Park Slope's prime blocks, steps to Prospect park, transportation, restaurants, shops and all the best Park Slope has to offer!
