Introducing 672 St. Marks Architectural Masterpiece!!! A Turn of the Century Pre War Mansion that is an absolute standalone Gem. Perfect for end user and investor alike. Amazing 27' Wide Renaissance Revival Home built with a classic facade rich in ornamental details, Roman Brick and Limestone. Once a Mansion owned by a Brooklyn Sugar Baron the property is now used as a 5 unit Multi-Family Residence. The massive building sits on a 27x 140.5' lot offering nothing less than a grand experience. Tons of the original details are still intact, boasting soaring ceiling heights on every floor, oversized windows and 3 exposures providing an excellent sense of light & air. Many ornate details include mouldings, a grand entry way & staircase, fireplaces, hardwood flooring, plaster work, doors, tile work & woodwork are all in good condition. Property is in working condition but needs to be updated. Buildings gross size is approximately 7,500SF.
