

353 East 25th Street

Townhouse : Flatbush

Restore this late 19th Century limestone townhouse to its original glory. Invite guests into your alluring foyer and charm them with stunning original detail. Feast on elegance in your proper dining room before retiring to the classic parlor. Ascend the sky-lit stairway to the bedroom level and sleep in tranquility until awakened by the morning sunlight. The second floor is configured with three and a half bedrooms and a large sky-lit bathroom. A finished basement with additional bathroom and separate entrance provides enough extra space and flexibility of use to suit any owner. Both the kitchen and basement access the large, landscaped garden. With some minor cosmetic updates, this could be the gem that you have been searching for! Block was 2011 Winner of Brooklyn Botanic Garden's "Greenest Block in Brooklyn Contest!"
