This is a magnificent, custom-built "Montana log" home. The home sits in a natural wooded setting with all the beauty and quiet of the Adirondacks. There is 200' of pristine frontage on Piseco Lake with beautiful views. The home is year round, quality built, and perfect for the setting. There are 3 large bedrooms, 3 baths, well equipped kitchen, and living and dining room with large windows to enjoy the setting. This home has a deck, inviting screened porch, and lovely front porch to enjoy the woods and the lake. There is a large, two-sided stone fireplace positioned for the living room and dining room. A finished walk-out basement adds lots more space for enjoyment to the property!
