Lovingly restored single family home in historic Lefferts Manor. This barrel front limestone retains many original details, including parquet floors, plaster walls, and stained glass transom windows. A gracious center stair and skylight make the house feel wide and welcoming. The unusual floor plan allows light from three exposures, making it exceptionally bright for such a deep house. The living room is filled with light and leads to a dramatic dining room with beamed ceilings, plate rail moulding, and decorative fireplace. Sun-filled kitchen with original cast iron double sink, Bosch dishwasher, Subzero refrigerator, and Bertazzoni range. Marble and butcher block countertops. Beadboard walls, schoolhouse lighting and a small butler's pantry add to the period charm. Master bedroom has en suite bath with console sink, pedestal tub and separate shower. Second bedroom overlooks the quiet back yard, and a third smaller room has a huge window ? use it as a bedroom or study. Second bath with shower.
