Located in Riverdale, this remarkable 1928 Mediterranean mansion, designed by renowned architect Dwight James Baum, is located in the heart of Fieldston, a century-old private enclave of historic homes in New York City. Just a 15 minute drive from Manhattan's Upper West Side, this unique house has over 8000 Sq. Ft. of interior space perfect for both intimate family life and formal entertaining. A beautiful center hall leads to an expansive living room with original stone fireplace, formal dining room with tile fireplace, solarium, and library. Also on the first level is a spacious eat-in country kitchen, adjacent breakfast room, guest room with adjacent full bathroom, powder room, butler's pantry and more. The upper level master suite offers a retreat with classic tiled bath, terrace, and sitting room/library. There are another five well-proportioned bedrooms and 3 additional baths. There is an attached 2 car garage and beautiful gardens. A one-of-a-kind-for the connoisseur of beautiful homes and gardens.
