In the heart of the Prospect Lefferts Gardens Historic District with its stunning architecture and easy access to Prospect Park lies this lovingly restored townhouse. On desired Maple Street, this 4 bed/2 bath house was gut renovated in 2010 with all new mechanicals and conveniences, while preserving its beautiful original detail such as hard wood floors, leaded glass, oak wainscoting and built in cabinets. The front large bay windows flood the home with light and offer timeless views of this wonderful tree-lined street. The modern cook's kitchen with marble countertops and Viking stainless steel appliances opens to both the formal dining room and the lovely, landscaped south facing garden. The fully finished English basement offers a full bath, large media/recreation room, marble bar and built in storage closets. Close to B,Q,2 & 5 subway lines make a trip to Manhattan quick and easy. A true gem of a home in the midst of some of the city's best examples of turn-of-the-century architecture.
