471 WEST END AVENUE

The architectural firm of McKim, Mead & White are widely considered the most prominent and prolific firm of America's Gilded Age. The 1885 townhouse they designed at 471 West End Avenue is exclusively offered now as a once in a lifetime opportunity to acquire an historic building that has been remarkably re-imagined as a 24' wide single-family home, by arguably today's most prominent and prolific firm, Morris Adjmi Architects. The two meet in a masterful vision of timeless classic and modern design that is extraordinarily satisfying. Beyond a bespoke dwelling, the person bold enough to write the next chapter in this significant property's history, obtains a priceless piece of New York City's architectural heritage as well.

“FOR US, 471 WAS A CHANCE TO COLLABORATE ACROSS TIME
WITH SOME OF NEW YORK'S GREATEST ARCHITECTS.
OUR INTERIOR RENOVATION IS MODERN, BUT ITS RICH MATERIALS
AND FORMAL MOTIFS BRING OUT THE ORIGINAL BUILDING'S
HISTORIC CHARM AND CAPTURE THE GRANDEUR
THAT DEFINED SO MUCH OF MCKIM, MEAD & WHITE'S WORK.”

As envisioned here, 471 West End Avenue offers every possible modern luxury: multiple bedrooms with ensuite baths + powder rooms, a swimming pool, theatre, library, stone fireplaces, game room, roof deck, and garden. The property is luxuriously rendered here at 8758 SF, but can be expanded up to a 9232 SF maximum. It is within walking distance to both Riverside and Central Parks.

Above: Eight levels of private luxury • fully customizable • 24 foot wide townhouse lot • 8758 to 9232 SF of living space • 7 to 9 bedrooms • 7.5 to 11.5 baths • stone fireplaces • elevator • theatre/game room • swimming pool • garden & roof decks,

The Adjmi studio has seamlessly blended a classic McKim, Mead & White, 24' wide townhouse, with a modern luxury vision. Light pours into the glass curtain wall facing the rear garden by day; and softly illuminates in evening. It leaps across 132 years into a new life.

In a prime location on West End Avenue & West 83rd Street, this landmarked building has been meticulously researched to restore McKim, Mead & White's original vision for its exterior. The Romanesque style facade features deep red brick, terracotta ornament, rusticated base, and new stoop, harkens back to its 1885 elegance; whilst inside the custom designed home is bathed in light from a new west-facing glass curtain wall.

The property is offered “as is”, delivered completely vacant, with first phase design plans for redevelopment. It was damaged by a fire in late 2013, but the existing structure is quite salvageable. The property lies within the Riverside-West End Historic District and is zoned R-10A. The extra-wide lot measures 24' x 100', and the existing 5 story building is 24' x 70'. Plans are subject to the approval of the NYC Landmarks Preservation Commission.

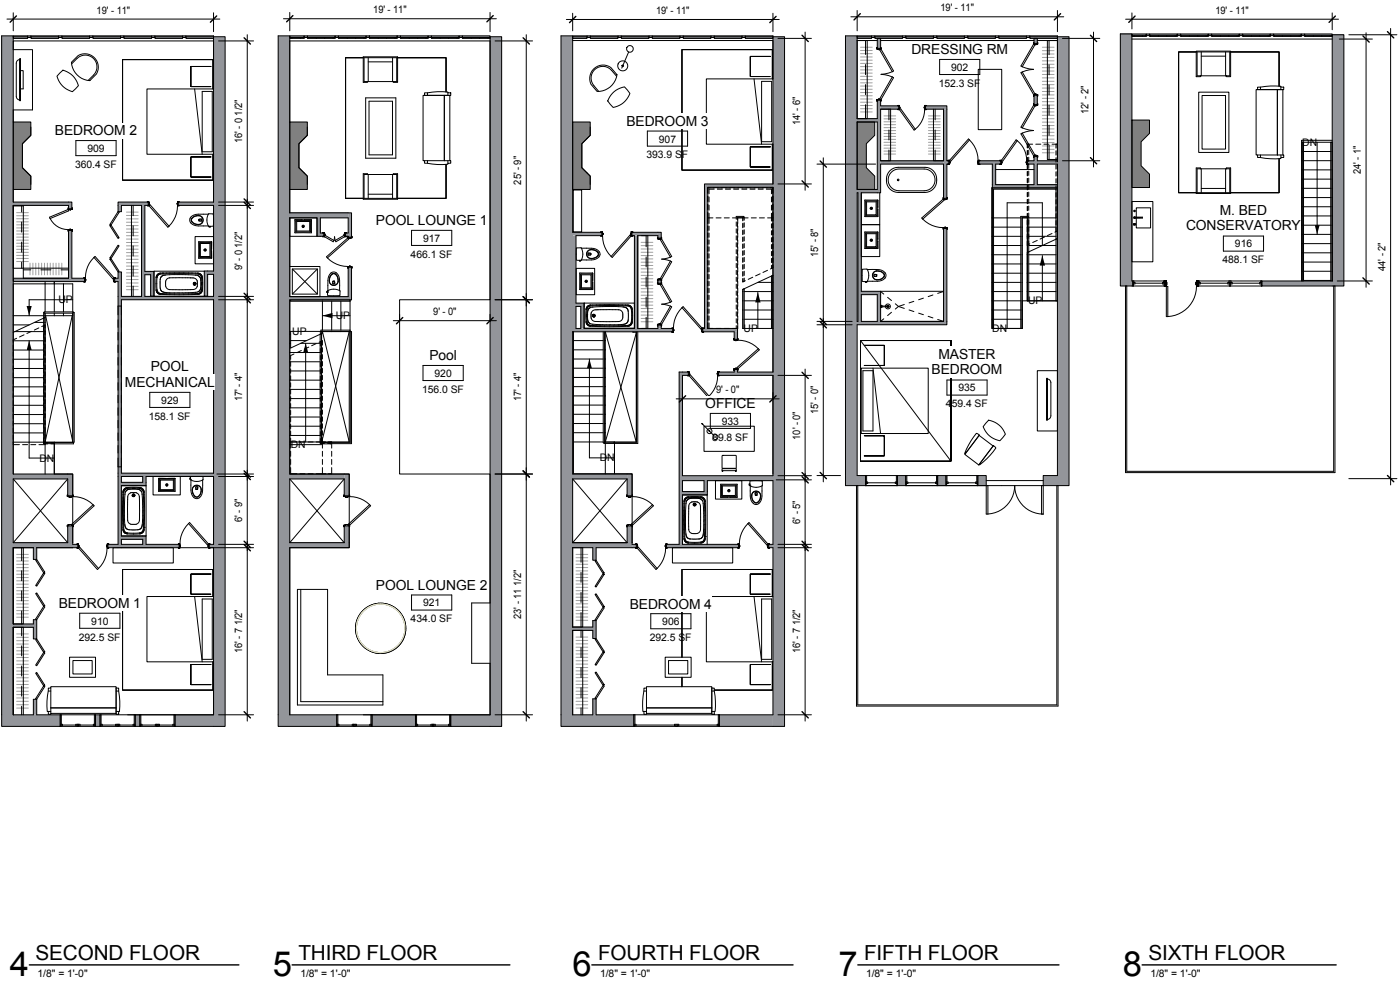

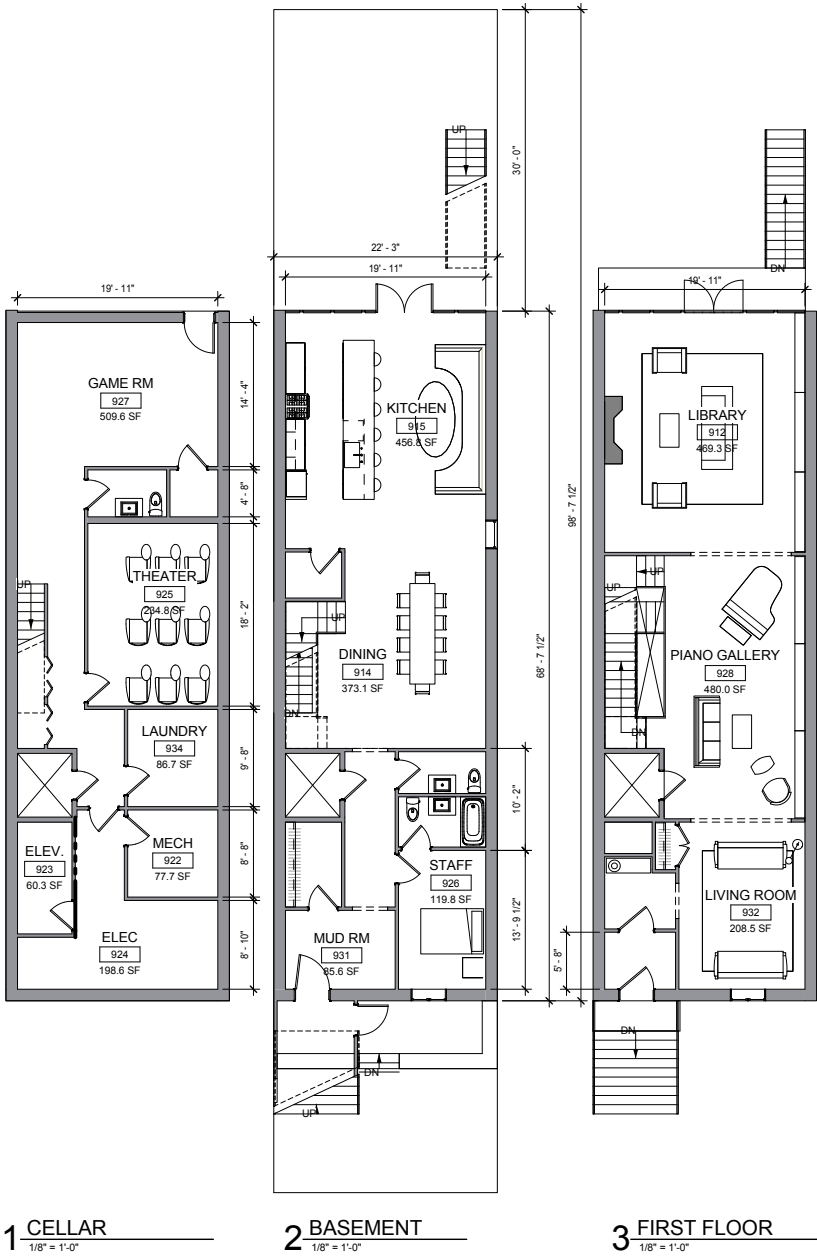

ABOVE: Take a dip anytime in the sky lit endless pool, an unexpected focal point on the fourth floor that adds life and style to luxury.
BELOW: The parlor floor creates a grand statement complete with an elevator to other floors and rich herringbone parquet floors
